

Activities for the session 2020-21

Student Orientation Programme

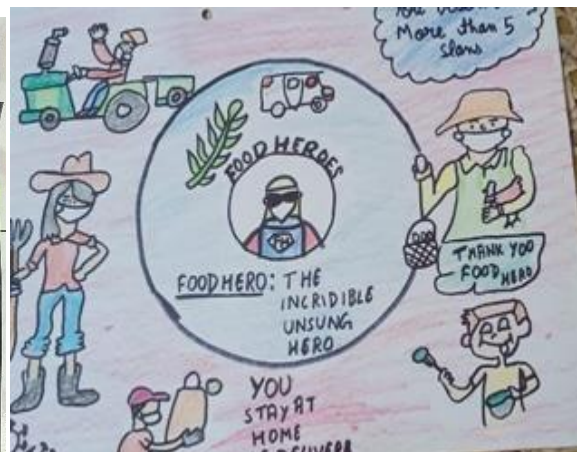

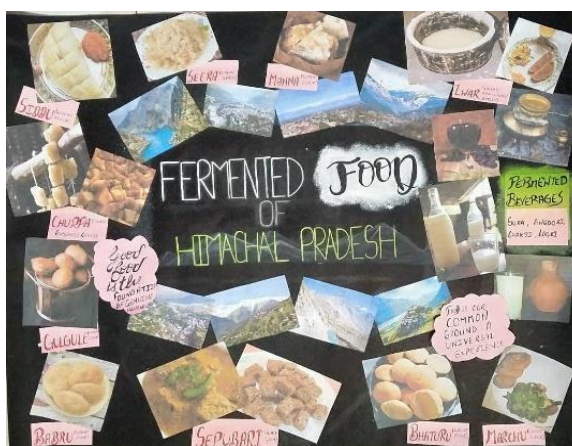

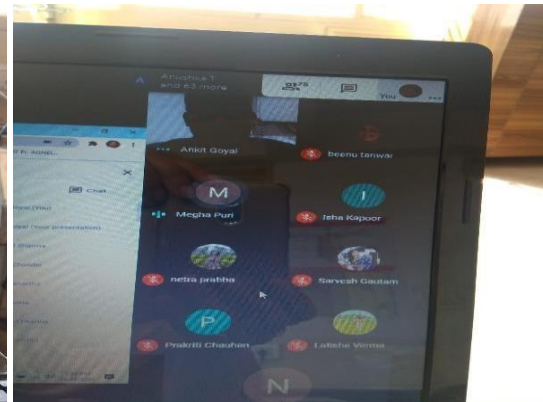

The Department of Microbiology organized an orientation programme for B.Sc (Hons) Microbiology Ist year students with an aim to familiarize new students to campus environment, its facilities and infrastructure. The students were also given a brief introduction about the course and its future prospects.

World Food Day Celebration

On the occasion of World Food Day, a talk was organized in the Department on the topic “Micro and nano-encapsulation of bioactive components”, delivered by Dr. Ankit Goyal, Assistant professor, Mansinbhai Institute of Dairy and Technology, Gujrat. The department also organized a collage and poster making activities for students on the themes Fermented foods of Himachal and Food Heroes respectively.

*Department of Microbiology
St. Bede's College, Shimla*

Sehaj Mehta gave a powerpoint presentation on NSS activities in Annual NSS Camp. She gave a detailed presentation on the NSS activities carried out throughout the year by the NSS unit in and outside of the college.

Interdepartmental Activity

An interdepartmental activity was organized with department of Botany. Ms Reena Thakur demonstrated the working of different instruments being used in the department to the students of B.Sc Botany 3rd Year.

*Department of Microbiology
St. Bede's College, Shimla*

